

Artemis FAQ's

1. Who should I contact in case my student will be late or absent?
 - a. Artemis Phone Line (8:30AM- 4:30 PM) 401-286-2928
2. If my student falls ill on a trip, what steps will the coordinators take?
 - a. Depending on the situation, one or both of the following will be done.
 - i. Calling the parent
 - ii. Call 911
 - b. We will stay with the student until the parent(s)/guardian(s) and/or emergency services arrives.
 - i. If the parent is unreachable and the situation is serious, we will escort the student to the hospital and continue to call the student's parent(s)/ guardian(s).
3. Can my student bring her own lunches to Artemis?
 - a. Of course! Artemis gives out snacks, water, and juice out as well as lunches at the Sharpe Refectory, but all students are welcome to bring their own lunches and snacks to Artemis so they can cater to any allergy or dietary need.
4. My student is afraid of heights, does she have to participate at the Ropes course?
 - a. We want everybody to have a safe and enjoyable experience at Artemis, which sometimes means going outside of the students' comfort zones. Therefore we encourage everybody to participate in any way they can, but we won't force any of our students to participate in any activity that they feel is unsafe for them.
5. Is my student allowed to bring a cell phone to camp?
 - a. Yes, all Artemis participants are allowed to bring their cells phones to camp. However, we restrict the use of cellphones during work hours of Artemis. Work hours include field trip days. Cell phones can be used during lunch and snack breaks as well as at dismissal.
6. What should I do if my student is unexpectedly late on a field trip day?
 - a. Please contact the coordinators and then you may choose to either follow us to the location where one of the coordinators will meet you outside of the building or you can return home.
7. My student is taking the RIPTA and is nervous about the commute, could we have a clarification on where to go?
 - a. Sure! We have a guide to RIPTA in the Guide to Artemis, and if you have any further questions, feel free to ask us in person!
